Dr. David Cole, in 1864, translated so much of this record as required translation, and obtained from James D. Secor the use of his grandfather, Rev. James D. Demarest's Register of Marriages. The Rev. James D. Demarest was Pastor of the Kakiat Church, 1808-1824. From 1824-1864 he was pastor of a "secession church" nearby, having seceded from the Kakiat Church. Since Dr. Cole's death, the Register of Marriages by Rev. George Brinkerhoff, Pastor from 1793-1808 has been discovered. Dr. Cole's original and a copy of the register of Rev. George Brinkerhoff, are in the Holland Society Library. The official Church Marriage Register extends, in the old Church Book, only from 1828-1864. Formerly ministers considered Marriage Registers as their personal property and a source of private income, and so kept them in their own custody. Dr. Cole numbered each entry, and I have for uniformity, followed his numbering as to the baptisms.

The Baptismal Entries may prove puzzling. From 1774-1795, - 196 entries - the baptisms, with a few irregularities due to subsequent corrections, etc., were arranged chronologically, or in order of celebration. Thereafter, the entries are chronological but in separate groups, one for each letter of the alphabet, and that letter the first one of the child's Christian or Baptismal name. Thus to find John Smith's children each group must be separately searched, and the child Anna will be found under "A", Bridget under "B", Mary under "M", etc.

Therefore, do not blame the compiler. No Baptisms are recorded from 1826-1840, after which some 143 entries appear with dates of birth and occasionally a date of baptism.

An index is therefore, most desirable, and later on, I may attempt one.

W. K. Griffin.

The first part of the report is devoted to a general description of the country and its resources. It is followed by a detailed account of the various industries and occupations of the population. The third part of the report contains a list of the principal towns and villages, with a description of their situation and extent. The fourth part contains a list of the principal rivers and streams, with a description of their course and extent. The fifth part contains a list of the principal mountains and hills, with a description of their situation and extent. The sixth part contains a list of the principal lakes and ponds, with a description of their situation and extent. The seventh part contains a list of the principal forests and woods, with a description of their situation and extent. The eighth part contains a list of the principal mines and quarries, with a description of their situation and extent. The ninth part contains a list of the principal fisheries and fowling, with a description of their situation and extent. The tenth part contains a list of the principal manufactures and trades, with a description of their situation and extent. The eleventh part contains a list of the principal schools and colleges, with a description of their situation and extent. The twelfth part contains a list of the principal hospitals and dispensaries, with a description of their situation and extent. The thirteenth part contains a list of the principal churches and synagogues, with a description of their situation and extent. The fourteenth part contains a list of the principal public buildings, with a description of their situation and extent. The fifteenth part contains a list of the principal public works, with a description of their situation and extent. The sixteenth part contains a list of the principal public offices, with a description of their situation and extent. The seventeenth part contains a list of the principal public institutions, with a description of their situation and extent. The eighteenth part contains a list of the principal public
 buildings, with a description of their situation and extent. The nineteenth part contains a list of the principal public
 works, with a description of their situation and extent. The twentieth part contains a list of the principal public
 offices, with a description of their situation and extent.

BRIEF HISTORY OF THE CHURCH.

The present authorities as to the Church History are Beer's History of Rockland Co., N.Y., edited by Dr. Cole, and the Manual of the Reformed Church of America, edited by Dr. Corwin.

The Reformed Church of Kakiat, or West New Hempstead, known, also, as the "Brick Church", was organized Dec. 4th 1774. It never was a large church, as its Membership List (pp. 47-50 at seq.) shows. New Hempstead was erected from the town of Haverstraw, March 16th, 1791, and the name was originally given by Long Island Settlers from the town of Hempstead, L.I. (Beer's History of Rockland Co., p. 136)

The proceedings relating to the origin of the Church are set forth in a document hereinafter given in full (page 47 herein).

The name was changed from "Kakiat" to "West Hempstead" prior to 1824.

Such history as is known is given by Dr. Cole in Beer's History of Rockland Co., N.Y., at page 239.

For completeness all church records of Spring Valley, Monsey, Ramapo, Suffern, etc., should be consulted.

LIST OF MARRIAGES IN THE ...

In the marriage records of Rev. James H. Pomeroy, and in the regular Church Marriage Register, all elsewhere given in this volume, appear in certain of the entries the birth dates of those married. I give these here for convenience, with reference to the Marriage Entry Number as appearing in this volume. This separate list does not appear in the original, or in Dr. Cole's copy. Unless otherwise marked, the dates are of birth.

NOTE: Dr. Cole congratulated himself on being able, thru the courtesy of Dr. James D. Bacon, to get hold of the "Private Marriage Register of the Rev. James D. Bacon, Minister of the Makiat D. Hoff, Church. This Register includes all marriages celebrated by the Rev. James D. Bacon from 1800, a few years before his death in 1869. Recently, the "Private Marriage Register of Rev. George C. Brinkerhoff has been made public, and some sixteen hundred copies of the Rev. Brinkerhoff's Register have been made for use of its members. It may be that earlier records will yet be discovered or rendered public. Undoubtedly many semi-public records are still in private hands, and doubtless it is only ignorance of their public value which induces their owners to keep them as private heirlooms. In other cases, groups of collectors have induced private possession of public papers, and it is to be hoped that some day all early records will be rendered to public use. The original Church Book Marriage Records at Makiat were begun, in the last book herein transcribed, from 1838-1864. At present the Marriage Records of Makiat for the following ministers have not been discovered, so far as I know.

- 1774 - 1778 Rev. David Harrison
- 1789 - 1793 Rev. Peter Loydt
- 1826 - 1854 Rev. Jefferson Wyckoff

Dr. Cole numbers the marriages by Rev. J. D. Demarest, from Nos. 1 to 441, and re-numbers the Official Church Book entries from No. 1 to 149. In view of the discovery of Rev. G. C. Brinkerhoff's records, I number his Marriage Entries Nos. 1 to 227 inclusive, and then continue consecutively with those of his successor Rev. J. D. Demarest, and then similarly with the old Church Book entries, making one series of marriage numbers only, for convenience of reference and indexing.

FOR CONVENIENCE TO THE READER, THE FAMILY NAME IS PLACED FIRST, WHETHER IN THE ORIGINAL IT BEHINDS THE GIVEN OR REVERSED.

Beginning with entry No. 276 there appears certain numbers, e/g., 4, 1 1/2, 2, 3 etc. etc. These probably represent the minister's reward for services, his marriage fee and possibly are an index to the wealth or generosity of the bridegroom. The usual fee seems to have been about $1.00. See below.

George C. Brinkerhoff was born at Closter, N.J., in 1761. He studied under Hoyer, Romeyn & Proeligh. He was licensed by the Synod of the Dutch Reformed Churches in 1786. Missionary to the North, 1789. At Conewago, Pa., 1789-92. At Helder and Nappo, 1792-1806. At Ramapo 1806-7. At Congregans, near Waseco, 1808-16. I herewith certify that I have legally married the persons whose names are contained in the foregoing Register.

Witness my hand

(Signed) George W. Brinkerhoff
T. J. . .

Oct. 1st 1868.

Register of the Marriages celebrated by the Rev. James D. Demarest.

The Rev. James D. Demarest was baptized March 9th 1780 at Paramus. He served the C. Church at Paramus in 1803, at Castropan 1808-9, at Kibest and Ramapo, 1809-24. He then succeeded and served the Ramapo and Hakiat (Ramapo) seceded church 1824-1859. He died Nov. 7th 1869. (Con's. Boer's Rockland Co., pages). (Also:- Dutch Reformed Church Manual.

The dates in the Manual and in Dr. Cole's article in Boer's Rockland Co. History do not agree as to the ending of the ministry).

It seems certain that the marriage records of the regular Hakiat Church after the secession of Rev. James D. Demarest are still in existence, in private hands. I have been confidentially so informed. It is to be hoped they will be made public. The Church Register does not begin until 1858, fourteen years after the secession of Rev. James D. Demarest. A similar "hiatus" exists as to the baptisms from 1724 - 1740.
